Name of the Organisation : NRI Sabha Punjab, Divisional Commissioner Office Complex, Jalandhar.

(i) The particulars of its organization, functions, and duties;

NRIs are very significant and integral part of the Indian Society. They are settled in more than hundred countries of the globe but maintained their cultural links with their motherland. They have always made their presence felt in socio-economic life of our country. Out of 2.5 crore Indians residing abroad more than 70 lacs are Punjabis. The people and the government of Punjab have correctly realized this hard fact. It has also been felt that they have been betrayed by their kith and kin and suffer from other social complications. Due to administrative and judicial procedure, the NRIs remained victim of injustice and harassment.

Prior to the year 1996, there was no organization of NRIs and they were in total oblivion where to take shelter and how to get their grievances redressed. Most of them faced multifarious difficulties about misappropriation of properties by their kith and kin, relatives and caretakers. As a result of these feelings the well-wishers of NRIs, founded an organization called "NRI Sabha Punjab" in 1996 which is only one of its kind and is patronized by Government of Punjab.

NRI Sabha Punjab office was formally inaugurated by the Governor of Punjab, His Excellency Lt. Gen (Retd.) B.K.N. Chhibber, PVSM, AVSM, VSM on 27.10.1996. The Government of Punjab gave their approval to the Constitution of NRI Sabha Punjab and for its registration on 5.3.1998. Thus the Sabha was got registered as a Society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 on 20 March 1998. Its headquarters is at Jalandhar.

The Chief Minister of Punjab is its Chief Patron. The Chief Patron is the guardian of the Sabha and shall nominate one or more Patron(s). Rana Gurmeet Singh Sodhi is the Patron of Sabha.

Divisional Commissioner Jalandhar or NRI Commissioner, as the State Government may deem fit, shall be the Chairman of the NRI Sabha Punjab. Smt. Gurpreet Kaur Sapra, I.A.S. Commissioner Jalandhar Division is now the Chairperson of NRI Sabha Punjab.

President of NRI Sabha Punjab is elected by the NRIs and the tenure of President is of two years. The officers/officials work in Central Sabha Office under the immediate supervision of elected President. Sh. Kirpal Singh Sihota is the elected President of NRI Sabha Punjab w.e.f. 07-03-2020.

The District Units of NRI Sabha are in existence in 12 Districts of Punjab namely, Amritsar, Gurdaspur, Hoshiarpur, Jalandhar, Kapurthala, Ludhiana, Moga, Mohali, Patiala, Ropar, SBS Nagar & Tarn Taran. The Deputy Commissioners are the Chairmen of District Units. The President of District Unit is also elected after every two years. The elections for the post of Presidents NRI Sabha District Units were held during Dec 2010/Jan 2011. Hence the elections are yet to be held.

NRI Sabha Punjab is a non-political body. It has been working since 1996 for the welfare of NRIs and for the removal of their genuine grievances in close coordination with the Government. By now, it has about 23,000 NRI members (inclusive of members of District Units) settled in various countries.

Main Objectives.

- Help the NRIs in protecting their rights in Punjab, especially in property related matters.
- Provide facilities to NRIs on their visit to Punjab.
- Pursue the interest of NRIs with the State and Central Government.
- Help in investment of NRIs in Punjab for economic development.
- Maintain cultural and ethnic bonds of Punjab with the NRIs especially with the new generation of the NRIs.
- Promote social welfare in Punjab by motivating the NRIs, their friends and relatives residing in Punjab.
- Provide a forum for the NRIs, their friends and relatives living in Punjab and the Government to join and act together.

Other objectives.

- To work for the welfare and promotion of interests of NRIs in general and NRIs of Punjab in particular without any discrimination on grounds of caste, creed and religion.
- To work for the social welfare and economic development of Punjab and India with the participation of NRIs.
- To work for promotion of cultural and ethnic bonds of Punjabi NRIs, especially of the new generation.
- To work as a forum of NRIs of Punjab in Punjab and India.
- To create, promote or affiliate societies, trusts or companies and to acquire assets, raise loan and obtain donations and grants for activities pursuant to the above objectives.
- To act as an agency of State Government for promoting the welfare of NRIs of Punjab.
- To act as trustees of the properties of NRIs of Punjab who wish to entrust their property to the Sabha for such trusteeship.
- To take special care of the NRIs who are members of the Sabha.
